Some tips for writing letters to Parliamentarians:

- Keep your letter brief – one page maximum
- Handwritten letters have the most impact
- Use the opening paragraph to introduce your key concern(s), then use clear, relevant and concise information to support your case
- Use a concluding paragraph that calls for a specific action or asks one or two questions only
- Sign the letter in your usual signature and print your name, address, fax number, work and home phone numbers
- Let the recipient know that you are looking forward to their response and keep a copy of your letter
- Address MPs as Mr/Mrs/Ms Full Name, MP, Address Senators as Senator Full Name (unless a current or former minister – in which case: The Hon. Full Name, MP or Senator, The Hon Surname)
